I Gave My Love a Diamond

I gave Laura a diamond
this day of valentines.

I called to her attention
a diamond
God gives all of us
nature give us
the sun gives us

brief diamond
but for all time

light from the sun
refracts
through a crystal of ice melting
from a leaf of grass
in our yard

temporal
yet
uncountable times
uncountable surfaces

infinitely?

From the beginning
of sun
to the end
of sun

unimaginable numbers
to my finite mind.

beautiful colors
light, light, light
