Poetry is Seeing

A bluebird is life
life acting,
flight,
life in flight.
eating.
I watch a bluebird eat
fly, walk, see.
Bluebirds are life.

An automobile is destruction.
There is nothing of life about an automobile.
There is nothing brought to life
to living, to seeing, to being.

A seed is life,
food, flower, fruit,
fruit bearing seed of itself
bearing life, feeding life,
carrying life toward future life.

Music is love,
Expresses Love, Life
Bears resonant,
pleasant sound to future life.

Music becomes Love.
Love becomes Life
is Life.
Each thing becomes the thought
of that thing,
becomes the metaphor it is.

A blue bird is life.
